Christofle

Christofle
PARIS

Thanks to its creations in silver, Christofle is a symbol of luxury and elegance. Since its founding in the mid-19th century, it has been a continuous innovative force and has infused each era with a new art of living.

A player in and privileged witness to the evolution of taste, customs, and traditions, Christofle has always seen its name associated with major creative trends, renowned artists, such as Man Ray or Jean Cocteau, avant-garde architects, such as Gio Ponti, and modernist silversmiths, such as Lino Sabattini and Christian Fjerdingstad, as well as present day designers such as Andrée Putman, Ora-İto, Eric Schmitt, Marcel Wanders, or Richard Orlinski.

Tucked away in a quiet neighbourhood, La Petite Boutique is housed in a small, humble shop befitting its name. Wheels of artisan and gourmet European cheese sit prettily in a glass case near its entrance, most of which are French in origin. The gourmet boutique was opened after the owners decided to cater to a large group of cheese enthusiasts.

Their selection of cheeses evolves throughout the year, following the seasons.

Brasserie Gavroche

Housed in a beautiful conservation shophouse on Tras Street, step past the antique doors and into Paris.

Brasserie Gavroche has been a proud beacon of Parisian culture and dining since its opening on Tras Street in 2011 and has been Singapore's answer to traditional, honest Brasserie cooking.

Founded and helmed by Chef Owner Frederic Colin, the rustic, hand-me-down French recipes enjoyed by Parisians daily have been a mainstay at this charming shophouse. The cuisine on showcase is timeless - classic dishes prepared from the heart and superbly executed with a deft hand and palate, honed over decades of cooking.

L'Angelus

L'Angelus, Singapore was established in 1998 and is the oldest single-location French restaurant in the city. For over two decades it's dedication to exceptional food as well as its exclusive French wine list, has earned it its spot in history – and a number of awards to go alongside.

Reminiscent of the charming restaurants tucked away in quiet corners of Paris, the setting and décor of L'Angelus evokes a very warm and familiar feeling, emitting an incandescent love of everything French.

Casier à serviettes, wooden pigeonholes for patrons' napkins line the walls, vintage posters lend a dramatic feel and colorful cut-glass ceiling lets in warm tones of day light and fill the room with colour!

L'Entrecôte

The Steak & Fries Bistro

L'Entrecôte
THE STEAK & FRIES BISTRO

Almost ten years after introducing the authentic L'Entrecôte The Steak & Fries Bistro experience from the streets of Paris to the quaint Duxton Hill, Singapore, the Parisian flair of L'Entrecôte has now been brought to the heart of Singapore's bustling CBD, at Customs House with the stunning vistas of Marina Bay.

L'Entrecôte celebrates the namesake of the restaurant – the season's best steak doused in legendary sauce, with unlimited crispy golden fries, and accompanied by a fresh green salad with French vinaigrette and walnuts.

Staying true to the original L'Entrecôte experience at Duxton Hill, L'Entrecôte at Customs House not only serves authentic French bistro fare, but also features a gorgeous al fresco bar terrace and signature Bar Bites menu of French-inspired dishes. Try our Deep-Fried Frogs Legs with Garlic Aioli, crisp Tarté Flambée in three different flavours, as well as Wagyu Beef Cubes with our Legendary L'Entrecôte Sauce.

Our bar bites at L'Entrecôte Customs House are perfect for enjoying with Ricard, a Lillet Vive cocktail or a glass of wine – it's a whole new way of sharing the L'Entrecôte experience with your friends, family and colleagues!

Odette

Established in collaboration with The Lo & Behold Group, Odette is Chef-Owner Julien Royer's first restaurant located at the iconic National Gallery Singapore.

Growing up on a farm in Cantal, France, Chef Royer's family picked and cooked their farm's fresh seasonal produce, the process was headed by his grandmother, Odette. She taught him that some of the most remarkable dishes, can come from the purest ingredients, and believed in ensuring that the fundamental pleasures of enjoying a meal are delivered in the most thoughtful, welcoming and hospitable manner. He cites her as one of the greatest influences both in cooking and life, thus it was only natural to name his first ever restaurant after her.

Taratata Brasserie

Taratata Brasserie will commemorate its' decade old milestone in Singapore come February 2020 at its' original site on Keong Saik Road.

At the helm is veteran French chef and owner Bertrand Raguin who represents one of the few modern times guardian of traditional French cuisine.

Savour their home made signature classics; a hearty French Onion Soup, a decadent slice of Foie Gras Terrine, or a deliciously rich creamy Pork Rilette for starters. Then relish in their tantalising French Duck Confit, or delight in a Rabbit Leg covered Mustard Sauce. Better yet, tuck into a beautifully aromatic Boeuf Bourguignon or a simple classic Sole Meunière pan-seared in traditional butter, lemon sauce and fillet by your table.

Taratata Brasserie's extensive menu offerings ensures diversity to satisfy the insatiable or even the most unadventurous palate, and nothing says pleasurable more than their home made ice cream or 100% dark Chocolate Tart to end on a sweet note.

Like all good food, a carefully curated and reasonably extensive wine menu can be expected. Start with a bubbly Champagne or enjoy any of the ten wine labels by the glass from Alsace, Burgundy, Rhone and Bordeaux. Wine pairing is also available upon requests. Make a date for that next special occasion.

In an artistic and creative way, we bring fresh wind into the group by challenging the participants in our Lotus Leaf Painting team building activities:

- to grow beyond oneself
- to recognise that every move to the big goal is important
- communicate efficiently
- to get to know the creative potential of the team.

In addition, you support employee retention and identification with the company and make your work environment more appealing with your own artwork.

Show your colors and become creative together!

Color feeling, aesthetics and relaxation - this is Stress-less Lotus Leaf Painting

The future of entertainment is now here with Virtual Room – the world’s best team-based virtual reality experience, now open in Chinatown.

Blending the escape room concept with a full 3D cinematic experience to deliver a unique, immersive and mind-blowing adventure lasting ~40-50 minutes.

Played in groups of 2, 3 or 4, each player has a dedicated room. You will join each other in the virtual world, talk together, walk around, bend, throw objects and collaborate to solve the mission.

With several exciting missions available, your team will travel back into historical time periods such as ancient Egypt and the moon landing to solve the puzzles and challenges.

Guaranteed no motion sickness unlike inferior VR experiences (e.g. where you are sitting down or using poor quality headsets).

It's unlike anything you've ever experienced before - immersion, freedom, adrenaline, the ultimate thrill!

Fun for all ages (no gore or horror) - friends, families (ages 10+), corporate team building, birthday parties, kids' parties, hens/bucks nights and school groups.

Gift vouchers are also available for a unique gift idea.

“ Perfect for team building and able to cater for large and small groups. ”
