Life by Design

Live the Life you Choose

We all aspire to live a life of our choosing. Our dreams and aspirations evolve and change as we navigate life's journey.

No matter what stage of life you are in, the decisions you make today provide the platform for your future. Navigating the opportunities and challenges in life, family, health, work and business creates complexity, particularly financial complexity. Over time, the number of 'moving parts' in life increase, requiring attention, money and planning. It is easy in the busyness of life to lose sight of your goals. Without an overarching strategy bringing all your efforts together, your future can seem uncertain.

Whether you're trying to buy your first home, sell your business, grow your wealth, leverage your current success to secure a better future or create a legacy for those you love, Future Gen Solutions can help you understand what's possible and how with purpose, planning and the right strategy, you can get there. We call this Life by Design.

Your Personal Journey

Our clients come from all walks of life and are at different stages of their life journey. Our support and services varies with each client's needs. Whilst each client situation is unique, we help people who are starting out or starting over, working families, professionals, business owners and those preparing for, transitioning to or living financially independent lives (aka 'retirement').

Starting Out / Starting Over

Starting out or starting over can be both liberating and daunting. Having the right financial foundations can have a huge impact for on your future success.

We understand at this stage of your journey getting your financial house in order may not be high on your priorities. However it is the perfect time to put in place some basic financial structures and strategies to set you up to leverage and maximise future opportunities.

We can help you to manage your cash flow, take control of debt (e.g. credit card debt cycle, HELP debt), save for those special things in life (travel, car, house), get your Super working for you and put in place the right level of protection so you have peace of mind. With the right strategy and structuring you will start to create your life by design in a very positive and tax effective way.

Families

Life for families is hectic, with both financial and time pressures. The dream of owning your own home, meeting mortgage repayments, caring for and educating your children (often through to university), renovating the house, planning family holidays and possibly caring for elderly parents and at the same time creating wealth for the future, all weigh heavily.

Many families are caught in the "three way struggle" that exists between tax, debt repayments and maintenance of lifestyle. We understand these pressures and the importance of maintaining your own health, wellbeing and 'sense of self' along the way.

We assist families to identify what's important and devise solutions to assist with pay down of private debt, funding education, prioritising lifestyle choices and creating longer term wealth.

Financial Independence / Retirement

How much do you need in savings and assets to be financially independent?

The concept of financial independence and the issues associated with longevity are complex and generally misunderstood. People are living longer, lifestyle and health expenses are increasing, the economic landscape is more uncertain and the notion of job security is a thing of the past.

Whether you preparing for, transitioning to, or are already financially independent, we can help you navigate the complexities of planning by tailoring solutions specific to your situation. We help you leverage your current position by ensuring you have the right structures, strategies and protections in place. We assist you to create or review your estate plan and we help you to articulate and plan the legacy you wish to leave. Peace of mind is knowing your future is secure.

Your Professional Journey

Professionals / Career Minded

Whether you're a business professional, corporate executive or business owner, balancing the competing priorities in your life can be a challenge.

Work and business pressures often consume your daily focus and your personal financial affairs can get away on you. We can help you to keep your financial house in order, leverage your success to grow your wealth in line with your risk profile, put in place to right level of protection to cater for the unexpected, and work with you to articulate and create your legacy and estate plan.

Our expertise is in tailoring strategies, project managing outcomes and liaising with your other professional advisers to deliver integrated and synchronised solutions. This allows you to get on with the more enjoyable and meaningful areas of your life.

Business Owners

Business ownership, particularly small to medium sized enterprises, requires vision, commitment and hard work.

We understand businesses are often created to realise a dream and support a lifestyle. They are a labour of love, a means to having a fulfilling work life and are a venture to secure a better future.

Business succession is a key concern for all business owners. We have specialist expertise in facilitating the planning and structuring of business continuity and key person plans.

We help facilitate the process of business owners starting, growing and eventually exiting the business. We understand creating, growing and realising business value can be complex, especially when the equity is tied up in the capital of the enterprise.

We can work with you in your business at any stage from start-up to exit.

Our Clients

Our business has been built on referrals from our clients and the professionals we work with. Here is what some of our clients say about us.

We were introduced to Murray Wilkinson and his team by a close friend quite a few years ago and it has been absolutely the best thing we have ever done. Over the years we have reached all our goals in life and had the support of Murray as a mentor and friend. As life for me has changed dramatically since the death of my husband, my respect for Murray knows no bounds. I felt very secure and confident in my life and appreciate the help and encouragement I always receive when we meet. Murray now helps other family members.

Individual, Brisbane, Qld

We love the 'cradle to the grave' type approach to our finances that is flexible and realistic, thus being able to achieve realistic goals. The service, advice, and obvious caring attitude is second to none and we feel that Murray and his team have our best interests at heart. To the extent that we are more than happy to refer friends and associates without question.

Business Executive, Brisbane, Qld

We have just completed our first full year under the guidance given to us by Murray Wilkinson and his team. We can honestly say this move is possibly the best thing we have done in regard to our financial future. We feel totally comfortable now, having just completed our first review, that our financial future is on a sound basis. We find Murray and his team exceptional in delivering an extremely professional and personal approach.

Couple, Toowoomba, Qld

We have been with Murray Wilkinson for more than 20 years. In this time we have paid off our home, improved our lifestyle with many overseas holidays, purchased cars, etc and assisted our family, all the while building our wealth and planning for our retirement so we can be independent and secure. Murray and his team have always been helpful and understanding of our changing situation. We successfully survived the GFC in a great position for growth. We look forward to a continued relationship for many more years.
