A person is seen from behind, walking away on a path that leads through a field of tall, thin plants, possibly reeds or bamboo. The scene is dimly lit, with the person's white shirt standing out against the darker background. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Plant hope for the tribe

A black and white photograph of a group of people, likely indigenous, gathered under a large, open-sided structure with a thatched roof made of palm fronds. The people are wearing traditional clothing, including patterned tunics and skirts. They are standing in a line, facing away from the camera towards the structure. The background is a dense forest of tall trees. The overall scene suggests a cultural event or ceremony in a natural setting.
