

2022 Pre-Budget Survey

Dear Cherished Client,

Every year, KPMG conducts a Pre-Budget survey ahead of the reading of the government's National Budget. The findings and insights from the survey are usually presented to the government through the Ministry of Finance and has impacted policy decisions in many ways to the betterment of businesses in Ghana.

Feedback from organizations like yours have contributed in significant ways to the findings derived from these surveys. This year's survey is at a time when many firms, especially financial institutions are adjusting to economic and regulatory pressures, global macro-economic uncertainties, technological disruptions and the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Once again, we look forward to your participation in the survey. The questionnaire can be accessed through this link <https://ecv.microsoft.com/8jpStGKdNX> and it will take 15minutes to complete.

We at KPMG will work shoulder-to-shoulder with our clients, integrating innovative approaches and deep expertise to deliver real results.

We would be grateful if you would participate in this survey by completing our pre budget questionnaire.

Regards,

Andrew Akoto
