PRESS RELEASE

AGL (AFRICA GLOBAL LOGISTICS,) at the heart of Africa's transformation

Bolloré Africa Logistics Mozambique unveiled its new brand during 2023 with the company now operating under the name: AGL, Africa Global Logistics.

With this new brand, AGL affirms its ambition within the MSC Group to continue to contribute to the sustainable transformation of Africa and emerging markets, thanks to its global, customised, and innovative logistics solution.

Since its establishment in 1985 at the initiative of the Mozambican government to boost the shipping sector, Africa Global Logistics Mozambique has grown significantly, covering a vast territory from Rovuma to Maputo and Zumbo to the Indian Ocean. AGL, representing decades of logistics experience in Africa and Mozambique, embarks on a new adventure with the launch of its brand, signifying a significant chapter.

With over 23,000 employees across the continent, including over 900 in Mozambique, AGL Mozambique is diversifying its activities, focusing on international transit, medicine distribution in partnership with the Ministry of Health, and logistics solutions for the energy production sector, as well as expertise in Aid & Relief, FMCG, Mining and Telecom to name a few. Committed to infrastructure investment, AGL aims to improve the country's logistics environment. The company emphasises the importance of investing in the training of young people, both academically and vocationally, exemplified by a partnership with the European Union and the Chamber of Commerce of France and Mozambique in 2023.

AGL recognises the crucial role of digitalisation in logistics and invests in cutting-edge solutions to enhance efficiency and customer service. The acquisition and rebranding is an opportunity to focus on future opportunities, corridor development, increased intra-regional exchanges, and the application of digital technologies to logistics, with a commitment to professional training for young people.

AGL Mozambique held a celebration of the new brand and corporate values at an exclusive cocktail event held on January 31st, alongside esteemed clients, suppliers, institutions, and dedicated employees. This event served as a momentous occasion to not only celebrate the refreshed identity but also to reinforce their unwavering commitment to the industry's growth.

By reiterating their dedication to the logistics sector and embracing the tagline, "At the heart of Africa's Transformation", in 2024, the emphasis was on AGL as a key player in driving positive change across the continent. The cocktail event provided an excellent opportunity for networking and collaboration, fostering stronger relationships and showcasing the benefits of a renewed focus on innovation, sustainability, and the continued provision of tailored logistics solutions that contribute to the ongoing transformation of Africa's emerging markets.
