

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Zazen at Erin-ji

Built in 1330, this temple is known for its superb garden and the family grave of Shingen Takeda, a famous warlord of Yamanashi.

Photo: Erin-ji

Zelkova Lumiere

Established in 1885, this old winery offers you Yamanashi's unique wines, Koshu, as well as delicious foods with local materials. After lunch, we will guide you to its winery area.

Photo: Yamanashi Prefectural Government

Making Hanko (seal)

Hanko, Japanese seal is one of the old and traditional industries of Yamanashi. At Ichikawa-Misato town, famous for No.1 producing area of Hanko, you can experience making your own Hanko!

Photo: Yamanashi Tourism Organization

Tokiwa Hotel in Kofu

Located in Yumura hot spring area, Tokiwa Hotel is Kofu's premier VIP guesthouse and it has been honored to serve generations of Imperial family, foreign nobility, esteemed artists and writers.

At dinner, the members of chamber of commerce & industry in Yamanashi will introduce other attractive industries and products of Yamanashi.

DAY 2

Ochudo trail at Mt. Fuji

Ochudo is a religious walking path that circles Mt. Fuji. You can feel refreshing air as well as cultural atmosphere of Mt. Fuji.

Photo: Yamanashi Prefectural Government

Photo: Yamanashi Prefectural Government

Itchiku Kubota Museum of Art

Itchiku Kubota (1917-2003) is a famous artist who established "Tsuji-gahana-Dyeing", unique technique of making Kimono. At this three Michelin-starred museum, you can enjoy lunch and Itchiku's sophisticated works.

Photo: Yamanashi Prefectural Government

Kitaguchi Hongu Fuji Sengen Shrine

This shrine has more than 1900 years old history, and is the center of religious culture of Mt. Fuji. You can visit here wearing Gyoi, a white robe of trainees.

Photo: Yamanashi Prefectural Government