

Manuel Angel Sanchez Vivas

Middle East & Africa HR VP

Manuel is an international HR leader with experience in different continents, both in mature and new economies.

He loves people, business, sales, changes and organizational transformation topics. He is passionate about his job and his motivation is to learn and have fun every day.

Manuel has an HR background with 11 years within Schneider Electric mainly occupying Head of HR roles either for a big country or in a Multi- Country organization. He was based in three countries during this period: Spain, Denmark and United Arab Emirates.

Prior to Schneider Electric, Manuel worked 8 years with HayGroup; selling and managing HR Projects. In his experience as consultant Manuel lived in Portugal, El Salvador and Nicaragua.

Manuel has a Master's in Industrial Engineering and worked as an Environment Auditor for two years. In addition, he has completed a Business Administration Program where he finally decided to make a shift in his career and work on people related topics.