

Press Release: For immediate release

Franco-British Business Awards 2025 celebrate excellence, innovation and impact London, 28th November 2025 – The French Chamber of Great Britain proudly announced the winners of the 2025 Franco-British Business Awards (FBBA) during a ceremony held in London on 27 November. The Awards celebrated exceptional achievements across the Franco-British business community, highlighting innovation, sustainability, community engagement, and the spirit of collaboration that continues to drive success on both sides of the Channel.

“This year’s winners demonstrate the depth, diversity and vitality of the Franco-British business ecosystem,” said Emmanuelle Bury, President of the French Chamber of Great Britain. “From SMEs to large corporations, they each embody a unique combination of ambition, resilience and social purpose. Their commitment to impact – both economic and societal – reflects exactly what makes our community so strong.”

Sébastien Joly, Managing Director of the Chamber, added: “The quality of nominations this year was remarkable. The winners have all shown an ability to turn challenge into opportunity, creativity into leadership. They are an inspiration for the entire Franco-British business network.”

2025 Winners

London Philharmonic Orchestra (LPO) received the People & Community Engagement Award for its outstanding work in making music accessible to all. Through a wide-ranging community and education programme, the LPO engages with thousands of young people and families across the UK, using culture as a bridge between communities and as a catalyst for inclusion.

Sodexo Stop Hunger Foundation won the Philanthropic Impact Award for its exceptional efforts to fight hunger and food insecurity in the UK. The Foundation has channeled corporate expertise and employee engagement into tangible social impact, supporting grassroots initiatives and improving access to healthy food for vulnerable communities.

Fashion-Enter Ltd was named Small Business of the Year for its remarkable growth and leadership in ethical manufacturing. As one of the UK’s most innovative garment producers, Fashion-Enter champions skills development, sustainability and transparency across the fashion industry, while helping to preserve British craftsmanship.

Square Mile Farms took home the Sustainable Impact Award for its pioneering approach to urban farming. By integrating hydroponic farms into office spaces into green, productive environments, the company promotes wellbeing, sustainability, and food awareness within the workplace – redefining what corporate responsibility can look like in urban settings.

Finally, Theodo won the Tech Visionary Award for its cutting-edge work in digital transformation. With its agile, innovation-driven approach, Theodo helps companies accelerate growth through tailored software solutions and has established itself as a key player in the Franco-British tech landscape.

-END-

For media enquiries:

Marie Protat – Head of Communications & Digital mprotat@ccfgb.co.uk / (+44) 20 7092 6648

About the Franco-British Business Awards

Organised annually by the French Chamber of Great Britain, the Franco-British Business Awards celebrate companies whose achievements exemplify the strength and creativity of the Franco-British business relationship. The Awards honour organisations that demonstrate excellence, innovation, and commitment to positive impact on the economic, social, and environmental landscape. The awards are open to all French or British businesses active in the UK, and we encourage businesses from all sectors to apply, regardless of their size or their resources. Companies are welcome to apply in as many categories as they would like to, but those which have won a Franco-British Business Award in the past three years are excluded from applying.

About the French Chamber of Great Britain

Founded in 1883, the French Chamber of Great Britain is the UK's largest Franco-British business network, representing over 400 member companies – from start-ups and SMEs to global corporations. The Chamber provides advocacy, networking, business services and thought leadership to help members connect, grow, and shape the future of Franco-British business.