The hotel lobby also presented spectacular seasonal décor, including a contemporary-style Christmas tree and holiday-inspired arrangements.

After the Christmas tree was lit, the lobby became a stage to welcome talented young musicians from the Royal Bangkok Symphony Orchestra (RBSO), who serenaded visitors with a special performance held in honour of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit, The Queen Mother.

The exclusive mini-concert hosted in the hotel's elegant Lobby Lounge formed apart of the brand's signature Kempinski Concertini series. The gifted young musicians performed "Rhapsody in Red", a classical composition created especially for Kempinski Hotels.

The Kempinski Concertini series was originally piloted in 2017- 2018 in select hotels as a cultural initiative. The concept was to transform Lobby Lounges into intimates stages for young local artists, grounded in the philosophy that each Kempinski hotel is a unique space where beautiful performances unfold daily, with the Lobby Lounge at the heart of the guest experience. The initiative has since evolved into a global series of mini-concerts, inviting emerging young musicians from local music schools to 'Play and Stay in Style' on a distinguished stage within the hotel lobby.

The Kempinski Concertini series enables each property to entertain guests from around the world, strengthen community connections and reinforce the hotel's position as a cultural destination.

"We are thrilled with the success of our recent Kempinski Concertini and grateful to the Royal Bangkok Symphony Orchestra for partnering with us to bring this unique event to life. We believe it is essential to support the arts and provide a meaningful platform for young musicians to share their talents with the world", said Jee Hoong Tan, Hotel Manager, Sindhorn Kempinski Hotel Bangkok.
