

The Danish-French Chamber of Commerce introduces Committee Awards for our annual Gala event!

Each committee joining the Gala awards project have set up a framework for their respective award. Each committee will evaluate the nominees for their awards, and the award winners will then be announced and presented at our annual gala, 2025.

To nominate a member of your team or your company for an award, please send us the required information via the form. It is possible to nominate for any and all awards, though each nomination must be a separate form filled out. The Chamber may also nominate for each award someone within the network who has shown exceptional efforts in their field.

Women's Committee Award 2025

The Women's Committee Award will be given to someone nominated within our network by their colleagues or themselves, who:

- ◆ ... has shown extraordinary effort in ensuring an equitable, mindful and positive workplace for all.
- ◆ ... has continuously worked towards breaking barriers towards social and economic equity, this could be within innovation, finance, culture or any other area of the workplace (or in the private life as it spills over into workplace culture and ethics).
- ◆ ... is overall an incredible person who engages and inspires people around them.

The Women's Committee Award is an intersectional and non-gendered award and may be given to any person. To award someone from your team or your company for this award, please send us a brief description as to why your nominee should win the award and how they embody one or all of the above descriptions. Remember to add concrete examples.

Please also include your nominees' name and contact information.

IT Committee Award 2025

The IT Committee Award this year will be centered on the use of AI in the workspace, and will be given to someone nominated within our network by their colleagues or themselves, who:

- ◆ ... has consistently explored new AI applications, showing a readiness to fail fast and cheaply on multiple attempts.
- ◆ ... has demonstrated entrepreneurial and innovative strategies in the implementation of artificial intelligence.
- ◆ ... has successfully integrated AI in secure and beneficial ways for the company, their colleagues, or their own work, leading to concrete and significant advantages and value for the business or society at large.

The IT Committee Award is an intersectional and non-gendered award and may be given to any person. To award someone from your team or your company for this award, please send us a brief description as to why your nominee should win the award and how they have impressed with their use and understanding of AI, using one or all of the above descriptions. Remember to add concrete examples.

Please also include your nominees' name and contact information.

ESG Committee Award 2025

The ESG Committee Award is centered on sustainability, though this can be environmental, social or governance related. The award will be given to someone nominated within our network by their colleagues or themselves, who:

- ◆ ... has integrated sustainable practices into all aspects of their work-life (or even private life), and who is a true inspiration to their peers and coworkers.
- ◆ ... is continuously raising awareness of the need for sustainable practices.
- ◆ ... has proved significant positive impact through their ESG commitments and efforts.

The ESG Committee Award is an intersectional and non-gendered award and may be given to any person. To award someone from your team or your company for this award, please send us a brief description as to why your nominee should win the award and how they have impressed with their use of sustainability principles, using one or all of the above descriptions. Remember to add concrete examples.

Remember to include your nominees' name and contact information.

HR Committee Award 2025

The HR Committee Award will be given to someone nominated within our network by their colleagues or themselves, who:

- ◆ ... has initiated an innovative and inclusive approach that has positively contributed to the workplace and general welfare.
- ◆ ... has shown a consistently high level of competent leadership and understanding of human resources.
- ◆ ... has increased the effectiveness of internal procedures such as recruitment processes, benefits schemes, performance evaluations, training and the like.

The HR Committee Award is an intersectional and non-gendered award and may be given to any person. To award someone from your team or your company for this award, please send us a brief description as to why your nominee should win the award and how they embody one or all of the above descriptions. Remember to add concrete examples.

Please also include your nominees' name and contact information.

YDFCC (Young Chamber) Award 2025

The YDFCC Committee Award will be given to a young professional between the ages 18-35 nominated within our network by their colleagues or themselves, who:

- ◆ ... has shown remarkable growth at an early stage of their career.
- ◆ ... has created significant new opportunities for their workplace and brought new and useful ideas that have been implemented.
- ◆ ... is consistently aiming for top performance.

The YDFCC Committee Award is an intersectional and non-gendered award and may be given to any person. To award someone from your team or your company for this award, please send us a brief description as to why your nominee should win the award and how they embody one or all of the above descriptions. Remember to add concrete examples.

Please also include your nominees' name and contact information.