Play

- You take this action because it is fun to do so (hobbies, puzzles or listening to music)

Play is powerful motivator as the more you see your work as play the better you perform

Potential

- Value in direct outcomes of an activity
- Fulfilling long term goal

Purpose

- You value the outcome and the impact of your actions
- But process may not be enjoyable

FREEDOM

- We all want this
- Without this we will never be able to release our potential

FEAR

- Feeling burdened
- Stops you being FREE
- Slave to the wants of others

Sources of Self Motivation

INTRINSIC MOTIVATION

Curiosity and Autonomy

Confidence and self
love

Desire to learn

EXTRINSIC MOTIVATION

Rewards

Praise and Recognition

Creates Pressure

Reward vs. punishment, intrinsic vs. extrinsic—these are the general strokes of motivation.

The Psychology of Self Motivation

Scott Geller

The Four C's of Self Motivation

The decision to take an action towards one's aim and goals comes from within

Choice

A supportive environment is the one that encourages individuals to go for gold

Community

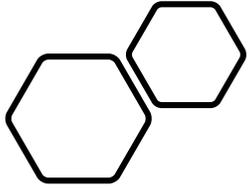

Motivation is fuelled by success and this leads to confidence

Competence

The outcome of our actions (good / bad) will either motivate us or not

Consequence

Why do we lose motivation?

LACK OF CONFIDENCE

LACK OF DIRECTION

LACK OF FOCUS

NEGATIVE
THINKING
