

Chambers associated in the International Group of Chambers of Commerce (IGCC):

invite you to participate in a conference

Rail investment and end of 2007-2013 budget perspective – how to prepare for unavoidable disputes with PKP PLK?

Closed conference dedicated to firms in the rail sector

Date: 21 May 2015 (Thursday), at 9.00

Place: Warsaw, Dago Centrum, Rondo ONZ 1, 2 floor

Professional Partner:

Professional co-operation:

Programme

- 09:00 Registration, morning coffee
- 09:30 Opening speech
- Stefan Bekir Assanowicz, President of the Board of Polish-Spanish Chamber of Commerce
 - Tomasz Darowski, Partner in Domański Zakrzewski Palinka sp.k. law firm
- 09:45 Know your opponent. Specifics of decision-making process at PKP PLK particularly as regards use of EU funds and financial adjustments – view of ex-decision maker.
- Aleksander Wołowiec, Member of the Management Board for investment matters of PKP Polskie Linie Kolejowe in the years 2012-2014
- 10:15 Discussion with participation of all participants
- 10:35 How to prepare for a dispute with PKP PLK? How to manage a project to increase the chance of success? Perspective of technical adviser.
- Maciej Kajrukszto, Contract Advisory team Arcadis sp. z o.o.
- 11:05 Discussion with participation of all participants
- 11:25 Coffee break
- 11:40 Can a dispute with PKP PLK be amicably resolved? On what does successful negotiations depend and what are comprise boundaries? Case studies – examples of positive and negative endings to negotiations with PKP PLK.
- Marcin Bałdyga, Client Contracts and Settlements Manager Trakcja PRKiI S.A.
 - Jerzy Sawicki, Senior Associate in Domański Zakrzewski Palinka sp.k. law firm
- 12:10 Discussion with participation of all participants
- 12:30 What still awaits the market apart from disputes with PKP PLK? Settlements and disputes with consortium members and subcontractors.
- Tomasz Darowski, Partner in Domański Zakrzewski Palinka sp.k. law firm
 - Maciej Kajrukszto, Contract Advisory team Arcadis sp. z o.o.
- 13:00 Discussion with participation of all participants and summary of meeting
- 13:30 Lunch

LANGUAGE: Polish – speeches of conference participants will be simultaneously translated into English