About the speakers:

Ms. Caroline Falconer is the Secretary General of the SCC Arbitration Institute that is a part of Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. She was until recently the chairperson of the board for the Swedish Corporate Lawyers' Association as well as working for almost a decade as inhouse legal counsel at a major European energy company. Caroline's presentations are practical and of interest for inhouse legal counsels.

Ms. Madeleine Thörn is Deputy Secretary General and Head of Operations at the SCC Arbitration Institute. She leads the case management team which administers an annual case load of ca 150–200 commercial and investor-state disputes, with parties from ca 40 jurisdictions. Prior to joining the SCC, Madeleine Thörn was an attorney and associate at a boutique law firm and at an international law firm in Stockholm, Sweden.

The SCC Arbitration Institute is a preferred arbitration institute for many European companies and each year, an average of 450 companies solves their disputes at the SCC.

The SCC has since the 1970's a strong position as a preferred arbitration institute for companies in central and eastern Europe.
